STORAGE BARN AND CONTENTS BURNED

Loss in Garfield Avenue Fire Estimated at $300, Auto Saved

Loss estimated at $300 resulted this morning when fire destroyed a storage barn at the rear of the Wesley F. Huebner residence at 911 Garfield avenue.

The barn, a two-story structure, had been converted into a garage and housed an automobile, several stoves and a washing machine when the fire broke out. Members of the Huebner family got the car out of the garage but the household articles were burned.

Neighbors discovered the fire only after it had spread over most of the building. Firemen from Central station were called at 9:27 a. m. Sparks ignited the roof of a coal shed about 150 feet north of the barn causing slight damage. The barn was insured, Fire Chief McFarland was told. Origin of the fire is unknown, he said.

Why Gulf is the Gas for July

"IS IT COOL OUT THERE GIRLS?

Well, it's hot most of the time on shore. July requires a gasoline that's made to a special hot-weather formula. Otherwise, you don't get the mileage you pay for . . . part of the fuel escapes out the exhaust unburned, wasted. Ask for That Good Gulf in July—its formula fits the weather. And because it's "Kept in Step with the Calendar," all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste. Try a tankful.

He would discuss the status only of Gaddy and reiterated his belief the nightwatchman "holds the key to solution of the mystery."

Miss Ward was held after she corroborated the musician's statement that he was at home the entire night of the crime.

RELIEF LOCALIZATION FORESEEN IN STATE

Lawrence and James Metzenbaum, against rural representatives who refused to stand for any bill giving their counties no proportionate share in the fund.

"It is an inexcusable and almost unforgivable waste of public funds," Gov. Davey said, "to give relief money to many counties which are already amply provided for through state funds under the Carey act because of more favorable local conditions and a comparatively lighter relief problem.

"Here we find ourselves with a limited amount of money in sight to take care of the relief program for the whole state, with little regard for actual need. This simply means that where the need is greatest the unfortunates will be reduced to a miserable status and hopelessly inadequate help, unless the counties in which they live can by some magic process find the means to furnish the additional necessities."

Problem To Be Localized

Two members of the special senate fact-finding and research committee which helped draft the new bill agreed meanwhile that local subdivisions faced in the future a greater share of the relief burden.

Sen. Edward Waldvogel, Democrat of Hamilton, said the shift should come "as quickly as possible" while Sen. Lawrence asserted it would be impossible for the state to step out immediately but added:

"I believe the time is coming when the state will have to expect counties to care for all unemployables by local levies."

The new relief law, becoming effective July 31 with expiration of the present one, will expire Jan. 31, 1937.

Visions Local Relief

Sen. Lawrence predicted a plan would be possible by 1937 by which counties would take care of unemployables as they do the blind, dependent mothers and children, and indigent soldiers and sailors, under statutory levies for welfare purposes.

Gov. Davey said he reappointed the present relief commission "in order to avoid any delay and to take care of the urgent requirements promptly." The members of the present commission will serve for the duration of the law. They are Rev. L. Wildermuth of Columbus, chairman, W. Gomer Jones of Gallipolis, Frank Kleinberg of Cleveland, and Mrs. Dorothy H. Kirchner of Toledo.

Both houses recessed at the will of the chair after officers signed the [illegible] sessions. No full session was expected again before Aug. [illegible]

TRAVELING FIRE

Blaze Brought to Water on Georgia Railroad.

By The Associated Press

AUGUSTA, Ga., July 23—Fire was brought to water when the Augusta fire department couldn't get water to the fire.

The firemen found a freight car loaded with 56 bales of cotton linters ablaze on the Augusta Belt Line outside the city limits and beyond reach of the department's hose. A railroad switch engine crew moved the flaming car within range of the fire hose. The blaze was extinguished quickly.

CLEVELANDERS SEEK MANIACAL SLAYER

Decapitated Body of 40-Year-Old Man Fifth Similar Victim.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., July 23—Police started today a systematic check of fingerprints and missing persons records in an effort to identify the decapitated body of a 40-year-old man, believed by Detective Sergeant James Hogan to be the work of a maniacal killer responsible for four similar crimes in the last year.

Not a single clue was discovered in the muddied clothing, piled beside the head, 10 feet from the body, in an isolated east side woodland section. As in the case of the other victims, three men and one woman, the body was nude.

Coroner A. J. Pearse said he would examine today bloodstains on the coat and blue polo shirt, part of the clothing. He said a preliminary investigation disclosed there was some doubt that the man was murdered.

"There is nothing to indicate that there was any violence on the skull or body," Pearse said. "The whole thing was so decomposed that it is possible for the head to have dropped off." He said the man was dead about two months.

Cleveland police have found no traces of the man believed responsible for the previous slayings.

A girl of 17, Marie Barkley, discovered the latest body yesterday.

POSTMASTERS MUST TAKE EXAMINATIONS

gress sought to have enacted under suspension of the rules, a bill placing postmasters under civil service. Of this attempt O'Mahoney wrote:

"A majority of the Republican members voted against the bill, while the Democratic members, by a vote of more than three to one, supported it, but because a two-thirds vote was necessary, the bill failed by seven votes."

Approved by Landon

An expression of opinion on the postmasterships and civil service came from Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee, during the national convention of his party at Cleveland.

In a telegram to the convention on the night of his nomination Landon said:

"I believe that there should be included within the merit system every position in the administrative service below the rank of assistant secretaries of major departments and agencies and that this inclusion should cover the entire post-office department."

Of the 13,730 postmasterships, there are 1,007 in the first class, 3,154 in the second and 9,659 in the third. Fourth class postmasters already are under civil service.

by aids to total less than 4,000 words, were guarded closely.

But perhaps foreshadowing the Republican candidate's own interpretation of party policies was the Cleveland platform which said the accepting nominees should "be true to the principles and program herein set forth"—an undertaking accepted "unqualifiedly" by Landon.

This declaration of resolutions promised maintenance of "the American system of constitutional and local self government" and favored business encouragement instead of hindrance.

"The necessities of life" were pledged the needy; a "pay-as-you-go" policy of social security was proposed and farm benefit payments were viewed with favor.

Some 60 trains—a score regularly scheduled and twice as many specials—brought their loads of visitors and uncounted thousands motored to the scene.

Starting late yesterday Landon in shirt sleeves and collar opened at the neck greeted the incoming visitors at his office in the statehouse.

NECK TWIST CLEARS LOST MAN'S MEMORY

Says It Felt Like "Million Dollars" and Recalls He's from Chicago.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—A 26-year-old amnesia victim who regained his memory when a doctor twisted his neck reported the return to normalcy today at [illegible] earning a [illegible].

A few minutes after the treatment, the youth, who found himself in Columbus Saturday, remembered that he was John Mizera of Chicago. He had made his way to the police station and remained in the city prison [illegible] since.

Dr. Charles H. Damsel whose hobby is criminology offered to help police identify him. Dr. Damsel's theory was that a scuffle or a fall had pushed the first cervical bone at the top of the spinal column out of place, producing pressure on the brain.

He twisted the youth's neck. There was a snap and "things began to clear up."

STOCK LOSS BLAMED BY WOULD-BE ROBBER

Scion of Ohio Family Also Points to Debts After Futile Attempt To Rob Bank.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., July 23—A 30-year-old business leader and scion of one of the oldest families in Harrison, O., today blamed stock market losses and pending debts as he was accused of attempting to rob the bank in his home town.

"I did it after I was unable to find a revolver to end my life." Marshals Ferd Doerman and Dave Pugh quoted Milton Turrell, president of the Harrison Business Men's association, as he sobbed in a jail cell after his arrest by Pugh at the little town, 20 miles northwest of Cincinnati.

Mayor I. F. Brinkman, praising Turrell's reputation, turned the young man over to federal authorities on charges of attempted burglary and breaking into a federal institution.

Pugh said he captured Turrell after answering a burglar alarm at the First National bank. The young dry goods merchant, the marshal said, was crawling from a cellar window.

Investigation disclosed that the combination of the night depository safe had been sawed almost off when the alarm sounded. Nearby were hacksaws and a kit of tools.

OXFORD TO HONOR M'GUFFEY MEMORY

By The Associated Press

OXFORD, O., July 23—This little university town that witnessed the conception of the celebrated McGuffey readers will turn back to its crinoline days of 100 years ago tomorrow in a celebration honoring William Holmes McGuffey, compiler of the highly-prized volumes that played so large a part in educating pioneer America.

Henry Ford, collector of McGuffey readers, and Edgar Guest, who wrote a poem in honor of the red-haired schoolmaster, will be absent.

Ford, who some time ago accepted the invitation of President A. H. Upham of Miami university to receive an honorary degree at the centennial, notified university officials that illness of Mrs. Ford would make his attendance improbable.

EXAMINER ORDERS FUNDS RETURNED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—A state examiner asked several Trumbull county school officials today to return school funds which she said they had spent wrongfully in excess extra-curricular activities.

In Weathersfield township school Examiner Ruth Kauffman asked R. J. Amy to return $160 he received for coaching the football team last summer, and Marion Flynn was called upon to return $50 received for coaching girls' basketball and baseball teams.

OHIO LEADS NATION IN WPA ROLLS CUT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 23 — The works progress administration reported today 2,231,117 persons were employed on WPA projects for the week ending July 11.

Deputy Administrator Aubrey Williams said the total represented a decrease of 8,565 from the preceding week ending July 4.

The greatest reduction was reported in Ohio. WPA employes in that state numbering 2,557 less for the week ending July 11 than for the previous week.

MANSFIELD FUGITIVE CAPTURE PREDICTED

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., July 23—Capture [illegible] of Henry Mayes, 25, who escaped the Mansfield reformatory last Friday, was predicted by Supt. Arthur L. Mattke. Mattke said Mayes, [illegible] from Franklin county and the only one of four to gain freedom, was seen driving a stolen automobile in western Ohio accompanied by a young girl.

Punishment of the other three will be decided later, he said. They are P. H. Stuart, 25, of Cincinnati, [illegible]; Clarence Brewer, 21, of Dayton, and Donald Lape, 23, Hocking county, serving terms for burglary. A guard, A. H. Morris, was slugged in the break.

TROOPS TAKE CHARGE OF STRIKE TORN CITY

Move Into Alabama Town After Battle Fatal to One During Labor Dispute.

By The Associated Press

TALLADEGA, Ala., July 23—National guardsmen moved into Talladega today to bar a recurrence of gunfire which killed a deputy sheriff and wounded nearly a score last night in savage climax to a prolonged labor dispute.

Col. John T. Moore, assistant adjutant general of the state, hurried 100 Birmingham militiamen into this little industrial city after he received reports friends of the slain man were banding for reprisals.

Deputy Sheriff John Bryant was killed in a brief battle in front of the closed Samoset cotton mills.

Joe Hayes, who accompanied officers to the mill, was shot in the stomach and was reported in critical condition. Fifteen others, including two women, were less seriously wounded by shotgun, pistol and rifle fire.

The first of more than 50 shots was fired shortly after Deputy Bryant, accompanied by several other officers, moved into a picket area to arrest an organizer for the United Textile Workers union.

The violence climaxed troubles growing out of the closing of the Samoset mills June 5 virtually at the same time a local of the textile union was organized here. Company officials said the shutdown resulted from lack of orders. Some workers' sources termed the closing a "lockout."

BUTCHERY SLAYING BRINGS INDICTMENTS

By The Associated Press

BROOKSVILLE, Ind., July 23—A Franklin county grand jury last night indicted Heber L. Hicks and three other Cincinnati men on charges of felonious homicide, and robbery in the butchery slaying of Harry R. Miller, retired Cincinnati fire captain.

Hicks is the only one of the four in custody. The death penalty is possible on two of the 10 counts. State police said they obtained a confession from him July 7 that he planned the slaying, with robbery as a motive, and hired William Kuhlman, Frank Williams and John Pohlsky for the task.

CORN BELT DROUTH ON INCREASE AGAIN

Nebraska and Iowa Especially Hard Hit by New Heat Wave.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 23—A spotty weather map presaged more drouth-aggravating heat in some sections of the corn belt today to test the fortitude of farmers already counting their grain losses in terms of millions of bushels.

Scattered local thundershowers with no immediate prospect of general relief were predicted by Forecaster J. R. Lloyd at Chicago.

In Nebraska, where temperatures generally exceeded 100 yesterday and ranged up to 110 at Ainsworth, Crop Statistician A. E. Anderson said corn could not withstand more than another rainless week.

He declared that in some parts of the state conditions already were worse than in the 1934 drouth, when Nebraska produced only 20,000,000 bushels compared with a normal 226,000,000.

Charles D. Reed, Iowa Meteorologist, estimated the corn yield expectation in that state had been reduced by 100 to 165 million bushels. Local thundershowers were forecast.

Southern Indiana's outlook was warmer, but local thundershowers were predicted in the northern part of the state. A survey showed the probable corn loss already had reached $12,000,000, with the yield reduced an average of four bushels an acre.

Rains, the first since late June in most sections, fell in the upper Michigan peninsula yesterday and the northern part of the lower peninsula.

STATES MAY DROP OHIO BRIDGE TOLL

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—All indications pointed today to eventual elimination of toll charges on 13 bridges across the Ohio river between Ohio and West Virginia.

Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio announced following a long conference with Gov. H. G. Kump of West Virginia late yesterday that the two states' bridge commissions would meet within a few days to work out a joint plan of procedure.

"We hope eventually," Gov. Davey added, "to take over all the bridges across the river between the two states."

PAPER BENEFITS FROM STRIKE ROW

By The Associated Press

[illegible], O., July 23—Extra advertising and more pages was the Rittman Press' answer today to a dispute over a strike at the Ohio Boxboard Co.

Editor Ernest Harrison said today the weekly paper's edition was being enlarged as the answer to picketing of his plant last week and a parade in the village last night, which he attributed to the newspaper's stand urging a return to work.

His own effigy was on the front of an automobile leading the parade, the editor said, adding that the best estimate of bystanders was that 300 persons, most of them from out of town, participated.

UTILITY RATE CASES STILL CAUSE DEBATE

Columbus To Ask Court To Reconsider Decision Setting 55 Cent Gas Charge.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—Despite long-awaited decisions by the Ohio supreme court, two of the most important utility rate cases in recent years continued as sources of debate today, with appeals to the United States supreme court possible in both.

Columbus City Attorney John L. Davies announced the city would ask the court to reconsider its decision upholding a 55-cent natural gas rate from the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. for Columbus within two weeks.

City Council President Frank C. Karns, chairman of the body's utilities committee, indicated the old 1929 case might be taken again to the U. S. supreme court. He said the council was ready to defend its stand favoring a 48-cent rate.

Ohio Bell Telephone Co. officials studied the other decision in which they lost their 14-year-old fight against lower rates and a state utilities commission order to refund $11,832,264 to nearly 600,000 subscribers in 44 municipalities.

SPY SUSPECT INDICTED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 23—Assistant District Attorney Samuel F. Beach said today the District of Columbia federal grand jury had indicted John S. Farnsworth, former navy lieutenant commander on a charge of communicating confidential information concerning the national defense to a Japanese agent.

ROOSEVELT ALERT ON HEELS OF TUNA

Chief Executive Out for Giant Fish With Rod and Reel Off Nova Scotia.

By The Associated Press

[illegible] Wedge Point, N. S., July 23—First [illegible] Nova Scotia waters [illegible] eager President Roosevelt out in a small boat from the schooner Sewanna today with heavy rod and reel.

The vacationists [illegible] saw a 500-pounder [illegible] yesterday just after it had been harpooned from a small fishing craft at the entrance to Wedge Point harbor.

Somewhat discouraged at first when informed the [illegible] fish had been harpooned, the Sewanna carries no such tackle, the President brightened himself [illegible] of catching a 500-pounder shortly before with rod and reel.

The fishing expedition made the northward journey to [illegible] Isle, N. S., somewhat indefinite. Yarmouth, about 18 miles north of here by boat, probably will be the first stop once the trip is resumed.

CONGRESS RACE DELAYED IN 13TH

By The Associated Press

TIFFIN, O., July 23—A 13th district Democratic congressional candidate to succeed the late Mayor Henry Hart of Sandusky will not be selected until Aug. 17, the district committee decided last night. Several meetings in the five counties of the district will be held in the meantime, leaders said, after a Sandusky group presented the name of Rep. W. J. Fiesinger of Sandusky, whom Hart defeated in the May primary.

TAKING OF MUSSELS BANNED BY STATE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 23—A new policy governing the taking of mussels was adopted by the Ohio conservation council yesterday. All waters will be closed to shell fishermen from Jan. 1 to June 15 and all waters closed to fishing also will be closed to shell men. The council also refused to extend from 10 to 15 days the open season on pheasants and Hungarian partridges and rejected a proposal to limit the taking of raccoon to two a day.

RAND REFUSES TO CONFER WITH DAVEY

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., July 23—A proposal that Remington-Rand strikes in Ohio, New York and Connecticut be settled at a conference of governors of the three states with company officials and employe representatives, went awry today, so far as Ohio was concerned, when the company president declined to meet with Gov. Martin L. Davey.

CLEVELANDERS SEEK MANIACAL SLAYER

Decapitated Body of 40 Year Old Man Fifth Similar Victim

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., July 23—Police started today a systematic check of fingerprints and missing persons records in an effort to identify the decapitated body of a 40-year-old man believed by Detective Sergeant James Hogan to be the work of a maniacal killer responsible for four similar crimes in the last year.

Not a single clue was discovered in the mudded clothing [illegible] beside the head 10 feet from the body in an isolated east side wood land section. As in the case of the other victims, three men and one woman, the body was nude.

Coroner A. J. Pearse said he would examine today blood stains on the coat and blue polo shirt, part of the clothing. He said a preliminary investigation disclosed there was some doubt that the man was murdered.

There is nothing to indicate that there was any violence on the skull or body, Pearse said. The whole thing was so decomposed that it is possible for the head to have dropped off. He said the man was dead about two months.

Cleveland police have found no traces of the man believed responsible for the previous slayings.

A girl of [illegible] Marie Barkle discovered the latest body yesterday.

gress sought to have enacted under suspension of the rules a bill placing postmasters under civil service. Of this attempt O'Mahoney wrote:

A majority of the Republican members voted against the bill while the Democratic members by a vote of more than three to one supported it but because a two thirds vote was necessary the bill failed by seven votes.

Approved by Landon

An expression of opinion on the postmasterships and civil service came from Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential nominee during the national convention of his party at Cleveland.

In a telegram to the convention on the night of his nomination Landon said:

I believe that there should be included within the merit system every position in the administrative service below the rank of assistant secretaries of major departments and agencies and that this inclusion should cover the entire post office department.

Of the 13,30[illegible] postmasterships there are 1,007 in the first class, 3,164 in the second and 9,659 in the third. Fourth class postmasters already are under civil service.

THURSDAY — JULY 23, 1936

Temporarily Permanent

The Ohio general assembly's [illegible] $6,000,000 permanent relief program designed to meet needs for the rest of the year. In addition a $1,000,000 cushion fund is provided to meet emergencies. Critics reluctantly accepting this bill estimate that Cuyahoga county alone will need $[illegible] before Dec. 31.

Impartial observers might well entertain misgivings about the adequacy of the appropriation assuming present relief rolls are maintained. They might point for instance to the likelihood that Lucas county grants will average $11.04 per family each month. Once more they might repeat rural legislators have shown unwillingness to approve appropriations appearing to favor urban districts.

When all these things have been said the fact remains that Ohio still has a relief problem in its hands. The present measure is likely to be only temporarily permanent. The improbability of another special session being called makes a crisis almost certain before the year is ended.

What can Ohio do? Disciples of economy may point to the New Jersey relief plan. When the federal government adopted the policy of giving only work relief New Jersey refused to appropriate money for the unemployables. The whole problem was thrown back on local communities.

Bitter differences of opinion exist over the advisability of this plan. Perhaps with justice critics maintain that the relief standard now is criminally inadequate. Yet one fact emerges. Driven to the wall local authorities have done a better job than they thought possible. At least they were forced to do something.

The emergency cushion fund provided by the general assembly will not be disbursed unless communities match these additional grants 100 per cent with local funds. Many communities facing the certainty of having to call upon the cushion funds for additional aid also will face the challenge of raising comparable amounts at home. Is it too much to hope that this challenge will bestir them to realize they can not forever rely upon a paternalistic government, state or national, to solve their problems?

Not in Vain

Passage of a state sales tax law gave Ohio politicians a particularly large and vulnerable straw man to attack. It was a certainty from the outset that they would dance around it ferociously, threatening to strike it down—but always being careful not to get too close.

The fact is that politicians don't want to harm the sales tax. They want only to advertise widely their dislike of it. They are like men cursing something on which their lives depend. Without sales tax revenue there wouldn't be enough money to operate the state and they know it.

That's no reason why they shouldn't rant against the tax. It's no reason why Gov. Davey shouldn't steal Stephen Young's thunder and ask for a constitutional amendment barring a sales tax on food consumed in the home. It's no reason why members of the house of representatives taxation committee shouldn't recommend a bill repealing the sales tax on so many things that revenue would be decreased $[illegible],000,000 by its passage.

The committee members knew perfectly well the bill hadn't a chance of passage. They hated to see Gov. Davey getting all the credit for fighting the sales tax while they got none. Maybe it will cheer them up to know that somebody noticed how strong, how brave, how [illegible] how daring and how [illegible] they proved themselves to be.

It's in the Air

There is more [illegible] in the air nowadays. Already students of propaganda have examined [illegible] the idea [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in the [illegible] schools [illegible]

If demonstration of [illegible] were needed the Spanish revolution would [illegible] it. With telegraphic service [illegible] or under [illegible] sides have resorted to the radio [illegible] to the waiting population. Both sides have [illegible] appeals, their propaganda [illegible] claims of victory and the denial of loss [illegible] the [illegible]. One twist of the dial [illegible] of [illegible] victories [illegible] another brought news of governmental successes.

Idea waves now are an actuality. One more product of the scientific age has invaded a new field. It is not improbable that [illegible] of radio in such emergencies as revolutions will profoundly affect the

[illegible]

Some Better Way

[illegible]

The proposal is not perfect. A few points remain to be worked out. But it is a start in the right direction. As long as judges continue to be in politics the courts will suffer. Judicial reform will not be achieved overnight but it will not be achieved at all unless a start is made. By and large a start and a good one has been made.

Matches

Many critics of the reciprocal trade treaties complain that the American farmer is being sold out. Most critics therefore aim their shells at the pacts making concessions to foreign agricultural produce. A large American industry however has made a new complaint.

Speaking for the American Match Institute, manufacturers' trade association, E. N. A. Eble has complained to President Roosevelt that Soviet dumping of matches is ruining the industry in this country. Under the trade treaty Mr. Eble maintains imports of Russian matches have skyrocketed and prices plummeted downward to a ruinous level. In April of this year, he says, 151,000 gross boxes were imported at 30 cents a gross.

Pro and con reciprocal treaty arguments will continue. The pros will insist that trade can not travel the one way route while the cons contend that legitimate industry and agriculture must be protected against the importation of goods made by cheap foreign labor. Aside from the general controversy one point in particular of Mr. Eble's complaint deserves attention. Is the Russian government selling below cost, he asks. Is it possible to sell matches for a profit at 30 cents a gross?

Even adherents of the reciprocity pacts might admit these are fair questions. The price at which it is asserted Russian matches are being sold to this country is low enough to make competition impossible if American wage levels are to be maintained. If in addition the Russians are selling below cost there appears to be a case of violation of existing anti-dumping laws.

Last year, Mr. Eble says, 30 per cent of the matches consumed in this country were imported, with almost half of the importations coming from Russia. These facts and figures if verified would seem to justify additional protection to the home industry.

Something To Trade

There has been a great deal of conjecture as to possible reasons why Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York after declining to be a candidate again changed his mind. He had excellent personal reasons for wanting to retire from politics.

By some magic President Roosevelt and other prominent new deal Democrats caused Gov. Lehman to reconsider his final decision. He was flattered by extraordinary attention at the Democratic national convention. Shortly thereafter he announced he would be a candidate again.

It was an excellent break for Mr. Roosevelt who needs Gov. Lehman's vote getting ability to help him in New York. Political observers agree that if the President can't carry his own state with Gov. Lehman's help he couldn't expect to carry it with anyone's help.

Still there has been no convincing explanation offered for the governor's change of heart. Personal loyalty is not a satisfactory reason. It is more likely that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Lehman discovered they had something to trade. What could it be?

In an attempt to find out someone has [illegible] Dr. Thomas Parran [illegible] general of the United States [illegible] Lehman in the [illegible] [illegible] appointed [illegible] White House.

Will Smith Change 'Walk' Into 'Talk?'

May Keep Silent To Maintain Place in Party; Action of Other New Deal Opponents Awaited.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright 1936 by The Marion Star)

[illegible]

Strictly speaking Al Smith would be making a political mistake of the first order in coming out for Governor Landon but it may be that he feels his political career is finished and that the time has come to nail his flag for principles irrespective of the effect it has on his own political future. It may be that Al Smith is ready to turn away from future political combat in the Democratic party in New York state or New York City.

There is a middle course and it may be that it will be adopted by the man who was thrice governor of New York state and in 1928 the standard bearer of the national ticket. He can refrain from announcing his support of Governor Landon, he can criticize those portions of the Republican platform with which he disagrees and he can at the same time repeat his previously expressed view in opposition to new deal policies.

If Governor Smith wishes to speak he can talk under independent auspices entirely apart from those of the Republican national committee or the American Liberty League. Last winter his speech before the league was a forceful exposition of his views and yet because it was delivered at a Liberty league banquet it did not have as wide an influence as it would have had if the auspices had been different. Rightly or wrongly the Liberty league has come to be associated in the public mind with one class whereas Mr. Smith's public life and record is a demonstration of his interest in and devotion to the common man.

There are various Democrats who would like to express themselves in the present campaign. They manage to find opportunities to say what they think under nonpolitical auspices. Thus Sen. Carter Glass delivered at the Patrick Henry celebration in Virginia recently what amounted to a scathing attack on new deal policies. If the purpose of former Governor Smith is to spread his influence in the campaign the fact that he goes fishing on election day and doesn't cast his own individual ballot for either Mr. Landon or Mr. Roosevelt is only of academic importance alongside a series of speeches intended to arouse public opinion generally to what he considers are the dangers to the nation in continuing the new deal.

Behind the News

Men and Affairs Under The Washington Spotlight

BY CARTER FIELD

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Several tremendously significant points in the first poll this year of the Farm Journal escaped general notice. In fact not sufficient attention was paid to the entire poll. It just so happens that this poll is the only one now being conducted that has ever stood the test of a close election. It happened to be right in 1916 as well as in the subsequent landslides.

Two states stand out like sore thumbs in the preliminary figures. One is Wisconsin, which most Republican leaders have been cheerfully conceding to Franklin D. Roosevelt because of the LaFollette influence which every one has assumed would be cast for Roosevelt after the preliminary maneuvers have been completed. But the farmers of the state in this poll so far have voted 1974 for Alf M. Landon to 930 for Roosevelt. Apparently the Wisconsin farmers who have not benefitted as much as many others from AAA, etc., Wisconsin being a very diversified state agriculturally, are voting their old political alignments.

It must be borne in mind that this is a poll of farmers. Milwaukee, the big city of the state, happens to be the stronghold of the Socialists. So that it might be fair to assume that William Lemke will poll quite a vote there. Incidentally Wisconsin recorded the heaviest vote for Lemke in any state so far, 11, and also the heaviest vote for Norman Thomas, Socialist, 14.

All of which might be taken to indicate that Landon has a very fair chance indeed to walk off with Wisconsin's 12 electoral votes.

Also Missouri

The other state springing a real surprise was Missouri. Gov. Landon personally has been rather confident of Missouri but although the original boosting of Landon came from the Kansas City Star, lieutenants of Landon have been most pessimistic about Missouri, largely on account of the effectiveness of the Pendergast Democratic machine in Kansas City.

But the Farm Journal's poll of Missouri farmers shows 3,539 for Landon to 2,807 for Roosevelt. In the old days St. Louis was the Republican stronghold in Missouri. The country between the two big cities was regarded as heavily Democratic. This is the section represented in the Farm Journal's poll. In discounting this it must be remembered that the old Republican machine in St. Louis has long since disintegrated while the Democratic machine in Kansas City is regarded as better than Tammany ever thought of being—proportionately to population.

Against these two dark spots for the new deal there is Iowa, which most political observers have been regarding as safely Republican especially since the primary in which Sen. L. J. Dickinson won so handily and in which the G. O. P. vote [illegible] exceeded the Democratic primary vote. But Iowa voted 1,351 for Roosevelt to 993 for Landon.

This is especially discouraging to Republicans who had hoped that not only would they carry the electoral vote, but reelect Iden. New Deal foe [illegible] on and elect one other Republican in place of Democratic Sen. Louis Murphy, killed in a recent automobile accident.

Offset in Nebraska

Offsetting this is the big pro-Landon vote of the Nebraska farmers, 955 to 498, despite Sen. George W. Norris's preference for Roosevelt. The only surprise in this to the Landon headquarters was the proportion. They have been counting on Nebraska, but by a small margin.

The Oklahoma figures are very interesting, 610 for Roosevelt to 511 for Landon. Friends of the Kansas governor say the farmers are the backbone of the state Democracy, while Landon will pile up the votes among the oil men.

Upstate New York voting 1,110 to 549 for Landon promises that Tammany will have to extend itself in the Greater City, while Pennsylvania farmers voting 1,561 to 895 for the Republican nominee make James A. Farley's claim of Pennsylvania look optimistic.

OLD JOSH STOW

Joshua Stow of Middlesex, Conn., bought the township in Summit county that bears his name in 1804. He had it surveyed by Joseph Darrow of Hudson. Stow took a job of flagman in the party leading the way as the survey proceeded. It was his part of the contract to supply the men with food and he found some difficulty filling it.

The country had many rattlesnakes. Once when the men were wholly without meat Stow dressed and cooked a large rattler and the men who ate of it pronounced it good.

The Ohio adventure was merely a business enterprise for Stow as he had no intention of becoming a resident of Ohio.

NEW YORK, July 23.—That amazing one block of West 52d between Fifth and Sixth avenues, which Lois Long has dubbed Swing Lane, continues additions to its gastronomic gaiety. There are now a club, a cafe and restaurants, and more buildings are being readied for occupancy.

The magnet that drew the flies to the honey was the success of the irongated No. 21. It began as a hideaway speakeasy in a neighborhood of mansions housing the Rhinelanders, the Stanwood Menkens and other names that sprinkle the society columns.

Down the street near Sixth is the Onyx Club, where that violent and brassy eruption known as swing music first blacked its din. The only one of the bars with great popularity to close was The Famous Door, so named because celebrities wrote their names on it.

In the block too is the mad house where Eddie Davis of Leon and Eddie's carols his gleeful indecencies. In this short block 200 musicians are employed and there are 20 doormen and a half hundred waiters, cooks and such. More than 50 cabs are stationed there from dusk until dawn.

Frank Mankivell, the etcher, whose studio is on 14th street, was one of the very intimate friends of London's celebrated limner Phil May. Many of May's most famous etchings were of the equally famous cabbies who give the British capital such a chunk of charm. He spent much of his time around the cab shelters and especially in the pub of Houndsditch, where cabmen relaxed. When May died Mankivell and a friend took a cab to the funeral, an hour's drive from London. Upon their return they asked for their fare. Said the jehu: "No charge, sir, for a friend of Phil May's. There isn't one of us who wouldn't have driven him around the rest of his life for nothing." Claire Briggs was also fond of chatting with cabbies.

Sen. Glass Hits "New Deal"

Sees Whims and Vagaries as Menace to Liberty

Sen. Carter Glass of Virginia has chosen "talking" [illegible] ing" as his method of showing disagreement with the new deal leadership of the Democratic party. At the Democratic convention Sen. Glass had nothing to say, and his silence was [illegible]. At Ashland, Va., last Friday he was invited to speak extemporaneously at the bicentennial observance of the birth of Patrick Henry. This time Sen. Glass had something to say. Following is a complete transcript of his remarks:

Mr. Chairman, Senators, ladies and gentlemen:

Patrick Henry's [illegible] was epitomized [illegible] in one sentence the [illegible] of Monticello [illegible] altar of God he has sworn hostility to every form of [illegible] over the mind of man—[illegible] to every form of [illegible] That was the life of Henry. There are [illegible] of tyranny over the mind [illegible]

We now have a [illegible] government of privilege and [illegible] such as Patrick Henry denounced in the house of [illegible] when he made his [illegible] that it was not proper [illegible] money of taxpayers [illegible] and appropriate it to [illegible] pages that had been [illegible] thriftless and unwise and [illegible]

That is just what we [illegible] ing in this country today [illegible] it be due to the minimum [illegible] bank manager [illegible] the hat [illegible] manager or the [illegible] of business or [illegible] The government is now [illegible] sorts of business now.

He was opposed to tyranny of all kinds and I submit [illegible] is no more damaging [illegible] tyranny than that of [illegible] many for the benefit of the [illegible]

Patrick Henry was [illegible] preted and misunderstood [illegible] Thomas Jefferson [illegible] though he was guilty [illegible] But that was not true [illegible] Patrick Henry never [illegible] himself with any political [illegible] He was for liberty.

The easiest thing [illegible] to do is to spend other people's money and it must be a pleasant thing, judging [illegible] number of people who [illegible]

I wish Patrick Henry were living today. I wonder what he would think of the whims and vagaries in government.

If Patrick Henry were here [illegible] would not cure one evil [illegible] multitude of other evils. When the Democratic party in [illegible] assembled declared against [illegible] and promised to [illegible] modify it, it did not mean [illegible] would institute [illegible] that would rob 55,000,000 [illegible] of both pockets at the same time.

What did Democrats [illegible] from every stump through the length and breadth of the land? We would go to Washington and modify the Smoot-Hawley [illegible] They haven't written a [illegible] to repeal a single line. We [illegible] industries continue their [illegible] robbery and let other [illegible] stitute their species of [illegible] When it comes to the wage earners, clerks and stenographers [illegible] fessional men and a large [illegible] others 56,000,000 of them [illegible] tion from them is from [illegible] pockets at the same time.

Patrick Henry would never in the world have countenanced such legislation in behalf of [illegible] leged classes.

From the Taxpayers

If Patrick Henry were [illegible] could he be bamboozled [illegible] of federal aid to the states? [illegible] does the government of the United States get money? Many [illegible] have the idea that all [illegible] do is start its printing [illegible] Any money that the [illegible] gets comes out of the pockets of the tax payers.

When the government [illegible] money it goes down in your [illegible] and gets it. All this [illegible] and talk is folly. Virginia [illegible] tim of excessive taxation [illegible] parison with other [illegible] year it paid into the [illegible] treasury $130,000,000 in di[illegible] It gets back a mere pittance. [illegible] paid more than 15 states [illegible] the Mississippi combined—[illegible] 10 times as much as Virg[illegible]

You are paying to [illegible] states west of the Mississippi.

Some people have a no[illegible] as soon as a dollar gets [illegible] hand of the government [illegible] comes some sort of sacred money to be doled out by [illegible] eral minion piecemeal [illegible] and I have always contended it would do vastly more [illegible] in your pockets or else [illegible] treasury of Virginia.

I was amazed to [illegible] high official of the [illegible] partment of the government [illegible] university the other day [illegible] shadow of Thomas Jefferson's tomb at Monticello, assert [illegible] the Constitution was [illegible] to curb government [illegible] but to lead the government. Patrick Henry was [illegible] posed in Virginia [illegible] Constitution.

Reason for Amendment

His reasons were [illegible] proposition that [illegible] government encroaching [illegible] because of his effort [illegible] 10 amendments [illegible] Constitution was [illegible] government [illegible] government hasn't [illegible] [illegible] and rema[illegible]

the slightest degree violate his own conscience A man's mind and his conscience are not the property of his people but they belong to the man himself

Patrick Henry if he were living now could he go along with the vagaries and whims of impractical academicians some of whom never did a day's work or earned a meal by the sweat of their faces? Henry's whole life was in absolute contravention of that sort of thing

Delegated Power Unwisely

The President of the United States has been bitterly criticized but my comment on his actions would be to the effect that he made the mistake of asking all the power that congress was willing to give him It is the congress that should be blamed for abjectly surrendering its own constitutional functions and delegating them to the President of the United States and to various minor executive officials

I have spoken thuswise to rescue the reputation of Patrick Henry from mistaken inferences and implications that he would if living now sanction any legislation that might reasonably be thought in contravention of the Constitution He religiously held to the view to the same time of his death that the judiciary should be the final arbiters of all disputed questions

If Virginia ever should fall to that level of moral destitution and lack of spirit as to desire to be represented in the United States senate by a rubber stamp its people would make a great mistake to vote for my reelection because if reelected I shall do in the future as I have done hitherto and carefully from my own convictions and vote my own mind without asking anybody how it would be done

TREASURER'S SAFE LOCKED BY MISTAKE

Locksmith Operates Combination After Drill Fails

County treasurer's records and some public money were unavailable this morning when Treasurer Homer D Cole and his assistant were unable to open the inner fire doors of the big safe in the office

Homer Hull local locksmith tinkered with the combination from early morning until noon before the big doors swung open A previous attempt to drill the lock failed because the drill would not penetrate the hardness of a secondary steel plate

The inner fire doors are seldom locked because the lock has not worked in a number of years Mr Cole explained but the combination was spun by mistake when the office was closed yesterday afternoon

Mr Hull also had a call to open the safe in an uptown business place this morning

James White [illegible] the [illegible] "Mr. Shipley bolted [illegible] Whatever for?"

"Curiously enough Sergeant [illegible] the very question I asked [illegible]

"I think you are a frightfully good sort."

"[illegible] I did. Please [illegible] away from [illegible] personally [illegible] he said [illegible] with a [illegible] Do you [illegible] think that [illegible] what hap[illegible] condition [illegible] into that [illegible] Dale Shipley what [illegible] ared at [illegible] while she man [illegible] a frightfully [illegible] and went [illegible]

Inspector [illegible] agi[illegible] the tip of [illegible] out. Good [illegible] with your [illegible] was standing [illegible] room poker [illegible] wall and look [illegible] to the Hoops as you [illegible] White said.

"I'm sorry I wasn't [illegible] I've had [illegible] day."

[illegible] so entirely [illegible] that Hyl[illegible] sharply [illegible] "I'm afraid [illegible] tea. I'm sorry [illegible] on the table [illegible] attention. He [illegible] That's a [illegible] of knife. Ser[illegible] go into the [illegible] There are half a [illegible] to talk about [illegible] excuse us." He [illegible] one of his quick [illegible] had not [illegible] he nodded and [illegible] moved across[illegible] elf. "Do you know anything of Miss Frances Lawson?"

"The Lodge keeper's daughter? From what I can hear of her she's like the rest of women: take up with any man she can get hold of."

Hylton gave a full account of Dale Shipley's story, to which White paid so little attention that the Inspector was moved to break off and enquire rather sharply: "You listening, Sergeant?"

"Yes, I'm listening."

"And you think it likely or not?"

"Very likely I should think. Besides, if Shipley cut and run because of this murder business he would hardly stroll back a day later, would he?"

Hylton was forced to admit the force of this. "Not unless he's very deep," he said. "I went straight to the Lodge and was lucky enough to catch Miss Frances alone. She came clean, and I must say her yarn fitted in in every detail with young Shipley's."

"Then it looks all right."

"It looks all right certainly, but if Dale Shipley didn't do it—"

"I don't think Dale Shipley did the murder, Inspector."

"You've said that before, White. But if Shipley didn't do it, who the devil did?"

Any answer was forestalled by the shrill insistence of the telephone bell.

"The super at Morechester wants a word with you, sir," White said, handing the instrument over.

"Damn," Hylton said fervently, replacing the instrument after a moment. "They want me to go over to Morechester—[illegible] some hare-brained theory, I suppose, but I shall have to go. They're sending a car to the Hoops."

Sergeant White shut the door after the departing Hylton and went slowly into the kitchen.

He found it as he expected to find it—empty.

Hylton walks in the dark tomorrow—and finds a man hanging.

Madge and Dicky Stop at Tourist Camp [illegible] Night on Their Trip to Catskills

A[illegible] her hus[illegible] at [illegible] declaration [illegible] mad by [illegible] come from [illegible] world suddenly [illegible] blood kin to [illegible] Alice who [illegible] when he [illegible] and trembled [illegible] own. I al[illegible] she must have [illegible] one person.

But the fact remains that a wife's moods are much dependent upon those of her husband, and the Victorian precept that a woman must always present a smiling face and a cheery mien to her husband upon his homecoming, no matter how surly his demeanor sometimes appears, a[illegible] eaten, especially when a wife has had a succession of capricious moods to face.

But of one connubial sin I am not guilty. I do not hold a grudge, and it is a rare occasion indeed, one in which I have been provoked beyond endurance, that I am not ready to meet my husband more than half way when he decides to emerge from his grouch.

So it was that when Dick followed his declaration—really an apology, though not couched as such—by asking where I wanted to stop for the night, I was ready with an answer and a smile.

"Anywhere [illegible] dark overtakes us," I told him. "We're only going to [illegible] the night and be off at dawn, so there's no use going to a hotel, for we can [illegible] breakfast at an hotel at the [illegible] hour."

"We can [illegible] breakfast [illegible] where except at [illegible] a [illegible] road stand—and [illegible] be [illegible] ful."

"We may find some good all-night restaurant," I said with vague cheerfulness.

SWIMMERS WARNED OF DELAWARE POOL

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, O., July 23—Delaware swimmers were warned yesterday that the water in Campbell quarry is not safe to swim in after a test had been made by a professional engineer of the Columbus Water and Chemical Testing laboratory. The test showed presence of sewage bacteria and also the presence of an abundance of mosquito larvae, the laboratory reported. When these bacteria are present there is a possibility of infection of the [illegible] ears, nose, throat or [illegible] together with the danger of [illegible] disorders [illegible]

LEGION BENEFIT TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Advance ticket sales indicate the public benefit dance to be held tonight at Park [illegible] under the sponsorship of the Bill McGinnis Post of the American Legion and the Marion [illegible] Voiture of 40 et 8 [illegible] that a capacity crowd will attend, the ticket sale chairman, Walter E. Hane reported.

The [illegible] receipts of which will be shared by the Legion post and the voiture, will begin at 9 o'clock with a public wedding ceremony. A Marion county couple will exchange marriage vows as the opening feature of the program. Paul Wheeler[illegible] piece orchestra with Dale Flan[illegible] vocalist will furnish music.

LEGION AUXILIARIES OF DISTRICT PICNIC

Fifty women of American Legion auxiliaries of Marion, Mt. Gilead, Mt. Victory and Caledonia attended a picnic given at McKinley park yesterday by the Mt. Gilead women. The time was spent socially and in discussing the state convention which will be held in Portsmouth next month.

The Marion auxiliary will have a social meeting Friday night at 7:30 at the Dugout.

New Team Set Up

Reorganization of the Marion colored baseball team was announced today by the newly elected manager, George LaVille of 181 Elwood street. The colored nine will play under the banner of the Marion Pirates and it is planned to add several new players to the present lineup. The squad will play both home and road games and other teams wishing games are asked to get in touch with Manager LaVille.

Season's End Nears

After this week only three scheduled games remain for members of the softball twilight leagues this season. Winners of the respective twilight leagues, Sunday School No. 1, S. S. No. [illegible] and the Commercial loop will be eligible for the Little World Series.

The series, according to the opinions expressed at a recent softball commission meeting, will be held at Lincoln park as twilight games. Suggestions that the Little World series might be played under the floodlights were vetoed by members of the commission.

BILL M'GEE CHECKS BREWERS, RED BIRDS SCORE 8-3 VICTORY

Columbus Proves Troublesome to Top Flight Teams in A. A.; Louisville Drops Millers

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 23.—[illegible] manager in the American Association [illegible] will concede [illegible] there are no [illegible] clubs in the circuit this season.

Yesterday the Milwaukee Brewers, now battling St. Paul for the leadership, took an 8 to 3 drubbing from the troublesome Columbus Red Birds. Big Bill McGee limited the Brewers to 10 hits and was well on his way to a shut out until Jack Kloza hit a homer with two on in the eighth. Eddie Morgan led the bird attack with four hits in five trips.

The championship Minneapolis Millers found Wayne LaMaster's [illegible] pitching too much and were beaten by Louisville's Colonels 13 to 1. The Colonels getting 16 hits and scoring eight runs in the first three frames.

Toledo's Mud Hens whipped Kansas City 9 to 8 in another night contest largely on a big five-run fifth inning which put them back in the game after they trailed the Blues by three runs.

The Axe Funeral team blanked the Moores & Ross club 2 to 0 in an All Star league game at Lincoln park last night. By winning, the Funeral Home edged the M. S. S. aggregation out of first place in the standings and today tops the loop with an average of .667 having won four of six games. M. S. S. was shoved to second place, Gasco clung to third and Moores & Ross by its defeat remained near the league cellar.

Harold Millisor was on the mound for the Funeral Home nine and allowed the opposing batters six hits, walking two and fanning nine batters. Two singles, one by Rose-berry, the other a clean hit off the bat of Paulus accounted for the funeral home's initial run in the second inning. Singles by Roberts and Robbins in the fourth frame accounted for the Funerals second run.

[illegible] Weiss turned in a good pitching performance for Moores & Ross but his teammates lacked the scoring ability displayed by the opposing squad. Weiss issued three passes to first, fanned four batters and allowed six bingles. Two fielding errors by members of the Axe Funeral club were the only misplays of the game.

The score by innings follows:

SANDUSKY, O., July [illegible]

[illegible]

By Curly's Waltress

[illegible] She is the [illegible] old [illegible] [illegible] with the waitress [illegible]

[illegible] Uncle [illegible] W[illegible] Welchel [illegible] accompanied Perryman [illegible] from Sandusky to Elyria, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo between the night of July 11 and July 16.

[illegible] made the statewide ride accompanied only [illegible] a taxi driver he hired as chauffeur of his own automobile. The driver whose name Sandusky police withheld, told [illegible] of the trip but until today [illegible] failed to mention the woman's presence.

Quiz Delays Warrant

Questioning of the woman delayed him in obtaining a first degree murder warrant against Perryman, Welchel said. The prosecutor said he released Mrs. Uncle after his examination.

The sheriff and Prosecutor Welchel said Perryman told them he had served a year in the Arizona state penitentiary at Flor[illegible] [illegible] for cashing a worthless check and [illegible] was while a prisoner there [illegible] of [illegible] wife.

His story was that another prisoner [illegible] wrote a postcard to a girl named Margaret Moore in Tiffin and that it was delivered to the [illegible] Moore of Bellevue who then was in Florida.

Wedded In 1933

[illegible] prisoner [illegible] the officials quoted Perryman as saying, and turned it over to him, resulting in a correspondence and their marriage in 1933 at Detroit.

Perryman was removed to county jail here from Tiffin yesterday after confessing there, Sheriff Vetro Deitz said, that "I pulled my gun and shot her as they were walking in a woods near Bellevue the late afternoon of July 11. She sort of [illegible] me down." Deitz quoted [illegible] man.

$60,000 Yacht Fails To Appear at Cleveland After Leaving Toledo

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 23.—[illegible] H. W. Stinchcomb said [illegible] coast guards [illegible] the [illegible] Jay for the $60,000 yacht Sea Jay which put out from Detroit late yesterday for Cleveland with [illegible] Allen, wealthy Painesville, O., manufacturer, Capt. [illegible] Hawkins, Painesville [illegible] estate operator and owner of the craft requested [illegible] when the boat failed [illegible] here this morning, Stinchcomb said.

He said the U. S. patrol boat Frederick Lee left Toledo to search the Put-in-Bay waters. His kins announced he would charter an airplane to assist in the search.

The Sea Jay on which Allen made a business trip was due to refuel at Put-in-Bay at 5:30 p. m. yesterday, two hours after leaving Detroit.

Stinchcomb said he had broadcast to all wireless stations and lake craft generally a request to be on the lookout for the 65-foot yacht.

STAG PARTY PLANNED BY JUNIOR CHAMBER

Arrangements Also Made for Public Auction To Be Held Saturday

Final arrangements for a stag party Saturday and Sunday at Buckeye Lake were made last night at a called meeting of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce held in the Chamber's quarters on East Center street.

About 40 members and friends are expected to attend. The party is an annual event. J. J. Apt and Wayne McCune are in charge.

A public auction at which miscellaneous articles for Marion residents will be sold on a consignment basis will be staged by the Junior Chamber Saturday afternoon in the [illegible] south of the Y. M. C. A. on South State street. The auction will start at 2:30 p. m. with [illegible] as auctioneer.

Proceeds of the auction will be used to finance activities of the Junior Chamber such as charitable donations, civic movements and similar projects. Boyle Morgan, first vice president, will be in charge.

The next regular meeting of the chamber will be held Thursday, Aug. 6.

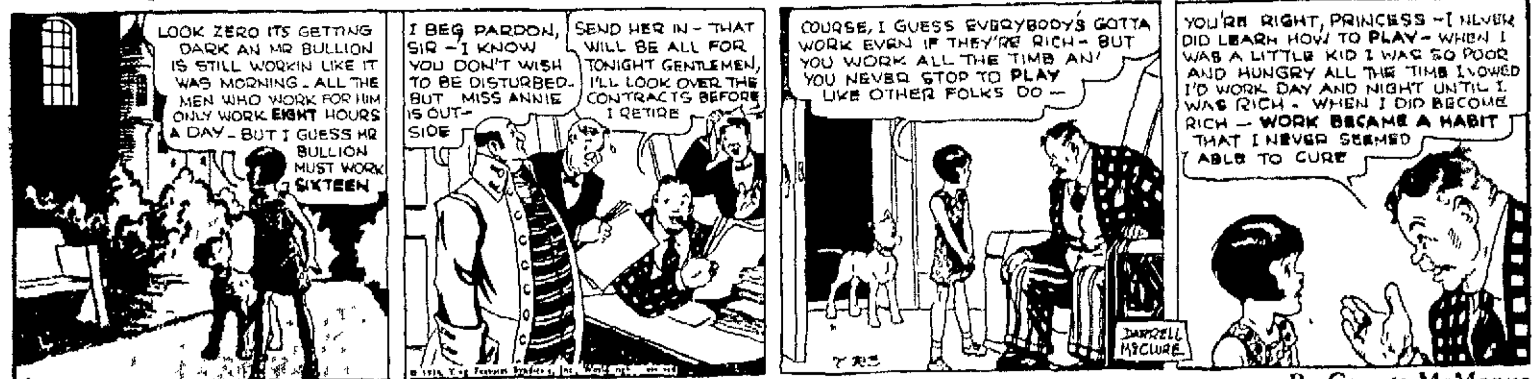
Annie Rooney

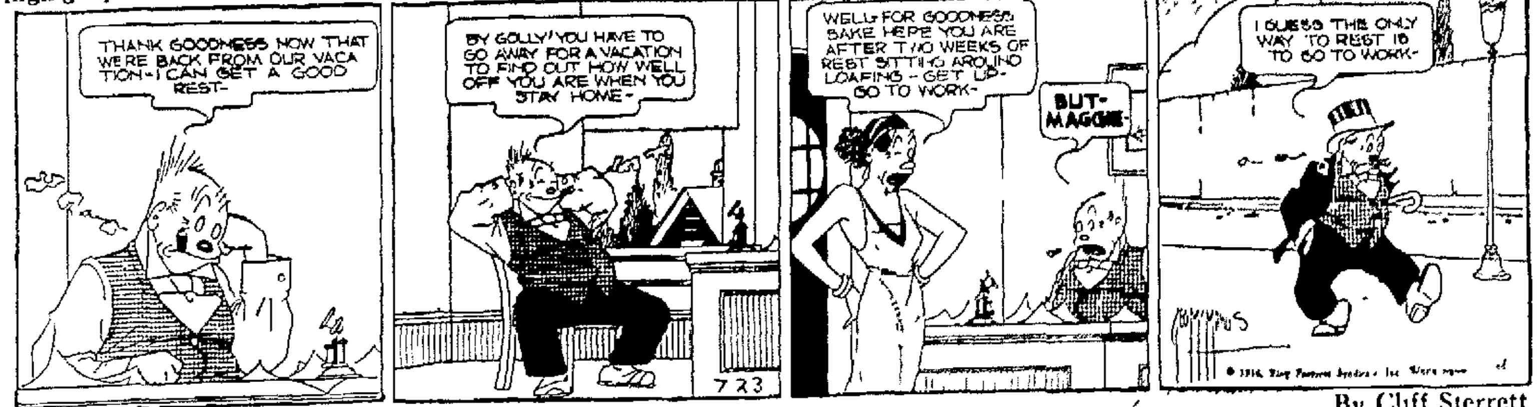
By Brandon Walsh



LOOK ZERO ITS GETTING DARK AN MR BULLION IS STILL WORKIN LIKE IT WAS MORNING - ALL THE MEN WHO WORK FOR HIM ONLY WORK EIGHT HOURS A DAY - BUT I GUESS MR BULLION MUST WORK SIXTEEN
I BEG PARDON, SIR — I KNOW YOU DON'T WISH TO BE DISTURBED- BUT MISS ANNIE IS OUT-SIDE
SEND HER IN - THAT WILL BE ALL FOR TONIGHT GENTLEMEN, I'LL LOOK OVER THE CONTRACTS BEFORE I RETIRE
COURSE, I GUESS EVERYBODY'S GOTTA WORK EVEN IF THEY'RE RICH - BUT YOU WORK ALL THE TIME AN' YOU NEVER STOP TO PLAY LIKE OTHER FOLKS DO —
DARRELL McCLURE
7 23
YOU'RE RIGHT, PRINCESS — I NEVER DID LEARN HOW TO PLAY — WHEN I WAS A LITTLE KID I WAS SO POOR AND HUNGRY ALL THE TIME I VOWED I'D WORK DAY AND NIGHT UNTIL I WAS RICH - WHEN I DID BECOME RICH — WORK BECAME A HABIT THAT I NEVER SEEMED ABLE TO CURE

Bringing Up Father

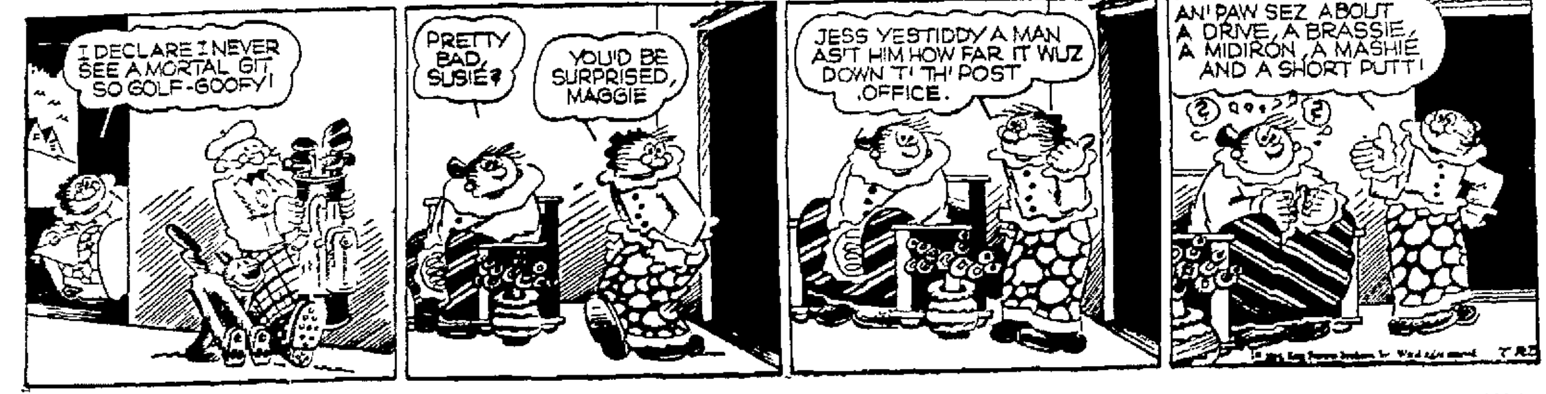
By George McManus



THANK GOODNESS NOW THAT WE'RE BACK FROM OUR VACATION - I CAN GET A GOOD REST-
BY GOLLY! YOU HAVE TO GO AWAY FOR A VACATION TO FIND OUT HOW WELL OFF YOU ARE WHEN YOU STAY HOME -
7 23
WELL FOR GOODNESS SAKE HERE YOU ARE AFTER TWO WEEKS OF REST SITTING AROUND LOAFING - GET UP- GO TO WORK-
BUT- MAGGIE-
I GUESS THE ONLY WAY TO REST IS TO GO TO WORK-
McMANUS

Polly and Her Pals

By Cliff Sterrett



I DECLARE I NEVER SEE A MORTAL GIT SO GOLF-GOOFY!
PRETTY BAD, SUSIE?
YOU'D BE SURPRISED, MAGGIE
JESS YESTIDDY A MAN AS'T HIM HOW FAR IT WUZ DOWN T' TH' POST OFFICE.
AN' PAW SEZ ABOUT A DRIVE, A BRASSIE, A MIDIRON, A MASHIE AND A SHORT PUTT!

NOW-NOW HENRIETTA— LET'S SETTLE THIS CONTROVERSY AMICABLY— I THOUGHT $10 000 WAS AN ADEQUATE INVESTMENT FOR YOUR BEAUTY SALON—
IS IT GOING TO BE A PEANUT STAND OR A BEAUTY SALON? $25 000 IS THE LEAST IT CAN BE DONE ON!
DON'T WEAKEN BIM!
I'LL HANDLE THIS- BRAINS ARE SOMETHING NATURE EITHER GIVES YOU OR DOESN'T — STUPIDITY IS HEREDITARY
THAT'S A FINE WAY TO TALK ABOUT YOUR ANCESTORS! WHOSE BEAUTY PARLOR IS IT - YOURS OR MINE?
ALL RIGHT, ALL RIGHT! DON'T LETS HAVE ANOTHER SCENE- YOU WIN, HENRIETTA!

OLDEST CARDINGTON STORE IS SOLD

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON July 22 D J Donavan sold his grocery store to Ernest Wilson Tuesday. Mr Donavan has operated a store here for more than 50 years. The feed store which was at the rear of the grocery will continue to operate under Eckert Donavan.

Ill health was the reason Mr Donavan sold the store. The store was known as the largest and oldest in Morrow county.

"To insure SAFETY, COMFORT and ON-TIME SCHEDULES for our 30,000,000 PASSENGERS, Firestone GUM-DIPPED TIRES are used on Greyhound Buses"

Says C. E. Wickman, President, Greyhound Corporation, world's largest highway transportation system

FOLLOW the lead of big tire users who buy only on proof of performance.

Last year Greyhound buses traveled 138,000,000 miles from Coast to Coast and from Canada to the Gulf across deserts and over winding mountain roads.

They have won the National Safety Council's highest award in inter-city bus operation for the past four years. This is indeed a tribute to careful driving, efficient equipment and the reserve safety of Firestone Tires made possible by the Firestone Patented Process of Gum Dipping which prevents internal friction and heat.

Firestone Gum Dipped Tires run up to 28° cooler and give greatest blowout protection—the scientifically designed non skid tread will stop your car up to 25% quicker and give you 50% longer non skid mileage.

Take no chances! Buy your tires on proof of performance. Let us equip your car today with Firestone Gum Dipped Tires, the Masterpiece of Tire Construction!
